Title I Schoolwide Planning

First

Input from school, family, and community members determine how Title I funds are used based on a needs assessment.

Second

Please attend meetings/trainings and complete surveys to provide input on Title I funding.

Last

All Title I schools must document that parents are involved in the schoolwide planning process.

Working Together for Student Success

As a Title I parent you have the right to be involved in the development of the following plans and documents for our school which can be found on our website or available in print upon request.

- School Improvement Plan (SIP)

- School-Parent-Student Compact

- Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

Through School Advisory Council (SAC) and parent meetings

Parent's Right to Know

As a parent of a student attending a St. Johns County Public School, you have the right to...

- ▶ Be provided information on your child's level of achievement on assessments in Reading/Language Arts, Writing, Mathematics, and Science.
- ▶ Request and receive information on the qualifications of your child's teacher and supplemental personnel working with your child.
- ▶ Be notified if your child's teacher is teaching out-of-field.
- ▶ Be informed if your child is taught by a teachers who does not meet state certification or licensure requirements for four or more consecutive weeks.

Parent- School- Student Compact

- The Parent-School-Student Compact is updated every year to include parent, student, teacher, and staff input. Parent, student, teacher and staff comments are welcome at any time during the year.
- At middle and high school levels, the compact is sent home during the first quarter of the school year.

Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

- Title I schools must:
 - Provide information on how the school works with parents, community, volunteers, and business partnerships to increase student achievement
 - Provide trainings to staff on effective strategies to engage parents in their children's education
 - Provide academic parent trainings designed to increase student achievement
 - Explain the curriculum, assessments, and the minimum standards that students are required to meet

Parent and Family Engagement Plan (PFEP)

The administrative leadership team will develop a Parent Involvement Committee.

The committee will make sure high-quality, Title I activities are provided and will ensure parental participation within the decision-making process.

Will solicit input and involve parents in Title I programs through SAC meetings, PTO meetings, and student & parent surveys.

Parents will be invited to the annual Title I meeting and given an opportunity to share concerns, provide input, and review the Parent and Family Engagement Plan.

The PFEP will be presented to parents during the annual meeting, placed on the school's website, and hard copies will be available upon request.

Developed jointly with parents
